Introduction

Congratulations, you have just made an excellent decision to live in Provence, or you are thinking about whether you should.

This handbook is designed to make you familiar with all services provided especially for you to make it easier for you to set up your company and help your employees and families to feel at home in their new socio-cultural environment.

Provence Promotion is the Bouches-du-Rhône economic development agency created by the Marseilles-Provence Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the Bouches-du-Rhône General Council that offer all their services to you.

Provence Promotion is at the heart of a network that has the essential mission of attracting new companies and helping them settle in the Bouches-du-Rhône department.

This network is organised around the Start in Provence program, designed to encourage company creators to set up in the Bouches-du-Rhône department, and it is ready to help you to create a permanent start up.

Administrative procedures

Foreigners from a country in the European Union or the European Economic Area (EEA)

Persons originating from a country in the European Union or the European Economic Area are entitled to stay in France for up to 3 months following presentation of a valid passport or a national identity card.

After 3 months, the visitor must ask for a resident's card marked "European Community" or "European Economic Area". The resident's card is issued free of charge and is valid for 10 years.

By virtue of the principle of free circulation of workers, European foreign workers do not need a work permit. However, some formalities are necessary, depending on the duration of the work contract. Please contact the prefecture or sub-prefecture of your district, the Town Hall on which you depend or the nearest police station to obtain information about residency documents.

Foreign persons from a non-community country

A foreign person from a non-community country who is resident outside France and who wants to work in France must take out an Entry into France application file that his future employer must send to the local National Employment Agency (A.N.P.E.).

The A.N.P.E. will send the file to the Departmental Directorate of Labor, Employment and Professional Training (DDTEFP) for investigation.

If a favorable opinion is given after the DDTEFP has examined the file, the file will be sent to the Prefecture and the International Migrations Office (O.M.I.) so that the entry procedure can be carried out.

When a visa has been obtained from the French consulate and as soon as the future employee arrives in France, this future employee will be required to pass a medical checkup with the O.M.I. regional delegation. The Prefecture will then be able to issue a temporary residency document marked "employee" to the future resident (following the presentation of a copy of the work contract signed by the DDTEFP, a medical check-up certificate and travel documents).

The French government has set up several Internet sites to provide information about administrative formalities to be accomplished to prepare your stay in France.

When you arrive in France, contact the Prefecture or sub-prefecture in your district, the Town Hall on which you depend or the police station nearest to your home.

Furthermore, if you need to have official documents translated, you can contact official translators ; the Aix-en-Provence Court of Appeal issues a list of translators.

Our address book contains the complete name, address and contact information for the organizations mentioned above (pages 40 to 48).

1.2

Diplomatic offices, consulates and foreign cultural institutes

Every expatriate will eventually have a professional or personal need to get in touch with his own countrymen.

The Bouches-du-Rhône department is a cosmopolitan and welcoming department in which there are almost 62 diplomatic offices and 7 foreign or Franco-foreign chambers of commerce (see pages 48 to 51 in our address book) :

- Franco-Armenian Chamber of Commerce and Industry,
- Franco-British Chamber of Commerce and Industry,
- Franco-Lebanese Chamber of Commerce,
- Franco-Libyan Chamber of Commerce,
- Franco-Turkish Chamber of Commerce,
- Italian Chamber of Commerce,
- Swiss Chamber of Commerce.

Note also the presence of two economic organizations, namely the Provence Franco-German Business Club and the GISEP (Groupement des Intérêts Scandinaves en Provence – Scandinavian Interests in Provence Group).

The Provence Franco-German Business Club is the regional office of the Paris Franco-German Chamber of Commerce and Industry. This organization encourages and promotes business relations between Germany and the South of France, and more generally between Northern Europe and the Mediterranean basin.

The GISEP (Groupement des Intérêts Scandinaves en Provence - Scandinavian Interests in Provence Group) is an Association according to the 1901 law to which all managers of companies or organizations working in Provence and with links with Scandinavian Companies belong. The purpose of the GISEP is to encourage the development of economical, social, cultural, artistic and scientific relations between France, Sweden, Denmark and Norway.

Moreover, a large number of foreign Associations and cultural institutes are set up in Provence, including the British American Institute, the Maison de Tübingen, the Noria (Franco-Spanish Cultural association), the Dante Alighieri Association, the Franco-Swedish Friendships Association, etc.

These organizations share a will to make the language and culture of their countries better known (particularly through language courses) and to be places of dialogue and exchange. Everything the "home sick" expatriate needs.

Health

Social Security in France

The Social Security system was created in 1945 and it is controlled nationally by the Ministry of Employment and Solidarity. Regionally, it reports to the Regional Directorates of Sanitation and Social Affairs (DRASS).

The French health care system was built on principles of liberalism, universality and solidarity. Thus, all residents are covered through social financing, an insured person can see any practitioner he chooses and medical costs will be reimbursed to him according to predefined schedules. It is recommended that a private insurance should also be taken out to supplement reimbursements made by the social security system.

The general system that covers about 80% of the population is organized in four branches :

- The illness, maternity, invalidity and death branch,
- The occupational accidents and diseases branch,
- The old age and widowhood branch,
- The family branch.

Foreigners who would like further information about social protection in France can contact the CLEISS (Centre des Liaisons Européennes et Internationales de Sécurité Sociale – Center of European and International Social Security Relations). This organization can have correspondence or legal, medical or administrative documents necessary for treatment of their files translated into French, if necessary at the request of the social security centers.

(See page 52 to 53 in our address book).

Please contact the Health Insurance Center closest to your home to register with social security for the first time.

Health in the Bouches-du-Rhône department

The Bouches-du-Rhône department has excellent medical facilities. This is reflected in investments made by the AP-HM (Assistance Publique – Hôpitaux de Marseille - Marseilles Hospitals Public – Assistance) for the year 2003 ; 20 million euros were set aside for the acquisition of high technology equipment, including a PET TDM Scan (positon emission tomograph combined with a tomodensitometer) – the third of this type installed in France. The General Council actively provides subsidies for hospitals and monitors that the equipment is continuously kept up to date.

The accommodation capacity of hospitals is high, with a potential of 16 253 hospital beds<sup>3</sup> on 01/01/2001 in the public and private sectors combined.

(See page 53 in our address book for a list of the main public hospitals and clinics in the department).

Moreover, all medical and paramedical specialties are broadly represented. Thus, on 01/01/2001, there were<sup>4</sup> :

- 3 873 general practitioners,
- 4 622 specialist doctors,
- 2 373 pharmacists,
- 1 673 dentists,

<sup>3/4</sup> INSEE PACA – Economic and social data 2003

- 2 611 masseurs-physiotherapists,
- 18 458 nurses,
- 575 midwives,
- 727 speech-language pathologists,
- 144 orthoptists.

The Bouches-du-Rhône department has an excellent density of doctors per inhabitant : 14.9 general practitioners for 10 000 inhabitants in the Department on 01/01/2001, compared with 11.5 for 10 000 inhabitants in all of France<sup>5</sup>. This rate has been increasing since 1999.

1.5

Consulting companies providing assistance with geographic mobility

Consulting companies specialized in geographic mobility offer the following services to companies, to make it easier for expatriate families to settle in Provence :

- Welcome : Welcome at the airport, real estate and geographic assistance, tourism, etc.
- Assistance with accommodation : from selecting a home to signing the lease or signing the promise of sale, including accompanied visits.
- Assistance with real estate expertise and sale or rental of the old residence.
- Assistance with settling in : Attendance at an inventory, subscription of contracts (telephone, insurance, water, gas, etc.), monitoring of the works if necessary, etc.
- Administrative assistance : for obtaining a resident's and work permit, opening a bank account, validation of a foreign driving license, etc.)
- Assistance with looking for a job for the spouse.
- Help with adaptation in general, looking for schools, leisure clubs, associations, etc.
- Assistance in leaving : cancellation of leases, inventories.

Provence Promotion, is working in partnership with the Marseille Conseil and Nook Relocation as part of its "Home Sweet Home" operation. However, there are many other "relocation" companies working in the department with "à la carte" services aimed at expatriate executives.

Moreover, the A.V.F. (Accueil des Villes Françaises – French Towns Welcome Committees) Network has several reception offices in the Bouches-du-Rhône, where newcomers can obtain practical information, advice, useful addresses, etc.

Finally, to simplify the life of newcomers to Provence, the Marseille Accueil Association provides information about the town's resources (housing, schools, sports associations, etc.) and organizes many activities throughout the year.

"Last but not least", The Kiddam Services guide for private individuals, provides solutions to daily problems and proposes popular addresses for leisure activities. The Kiddam is free and covers the entire Marseilles urban district from Marignane to La Ciotat.

(All names, addresses, telephone numbers on page 54 in our address book).

2.1

French education system

Education in France is controlled by the Government. Within the government, the Ministry of National Education, Research and Technology is responsible for the education policy.

The State defines education programs, recruits and trains personnel, creates and fills teaching jobs and administration jobs, defines the status and operating rules for schools, and fixes the dates of school holidays in each of the three zones in mainland France.

Local authorities also have a number of powers and responsibilities :

- Regions managed by an elected Regional Council are responsible for construction and maintenance of high schools (higher secondary education),
- Departments, represented by an elected assembly – the General Council – have the same authority for colleges (lower secondary education),
- Communes (towns) manage primary schools (nursery school and primary school).

In higher education, Universities have an administrative, financial, pedagogic and scientific independence.

Education is the leading national priority and the basic principles for education are that it is free and secular.

Schooling is free and compulsory from 6 to 16 years and public schools, which provide schooling for 80% of all pupils, are secular, in other words they do not teach any religion.

There is also a private education system that guarantees freedom of education, mostly consisting of catholic schools that have entered into a contract with the State (controlled by the State and that are obliged to respect timetables and programs applicable in the public sector).

Families using private schooling must pay school fees that are variable depending on the school. About 17% of all pupils are in this sector (from nursery school to the Terminal class (the last year at high school).

From the day care center to high school

There are several types of day care for pre-school children. There is a particularly wide range of choices in the Bouches-du-Rhône department, and the General Council plans to create 3000 additional day care center places within the next six years.

Thus, the total number of places in the department on 01/01/2001<sup>6</sup> was :

- 6 823 places in collective day care centers,
- 72 places in parental day care centers,

<sup>6</sup> FINES – Fichier National des Etablissements Sanitaires et Sociaux

- 2 258 places in stop-over centers,
- 43 places in parental stop-over centers,
- 1 066 places in stop over centers and pre-school centers,
- 2 374 children in family day care centers

Please contact the infancy service in the Town Hall near your home for information about methods of looking after children too young to go to school.

Some towns created an on-line list of municipal collective day care centers on their Internet site, with other accommodation structures for small children (stop-over centers, outdoor centers, etc.).

There are also many schools in the Department, from nursery school up to University entrance level. The variety of initial training has expanded considerably over the last ten years, to satisfy needs of population movements<sup>7</sup>.

The Bouches-du-Rhône has<sup>8</sup> :

- 580 nursery schools,
- 696 primary schools,
- 185 secondary schools,
- 79 professional high schools,
- 92 general high schools.

If you would like any further information about nursery or primary schools, please contact the Town Hall on which you depend. If you would like a list of secondary schools and high schools, please contact the Rectorate of the Aix-Marseilles Academy.

(See page 55 in our address book).

2.3

Higher education

The Aix-Marseilles Academy that covers the entire department offers a complete range of higher education, with three universities and sixteen prestigious university schools.

There were 101 176 students during the year 2001-2002, studying the following subjects<sup>9</sup> :

Subject	Number
Preparatory Class for entrance examinations to University Schools (CPGE)	2 852
Higher Technicians Section (STS)	10 267
IUT (Vocational higher education college)	3 912
Universities (apart from engineering schools)	68 103
Engineering Schools	3 100
IUFM (Teacher's training college)	3 741
Business schools	2 146
Legal and administrative schools	96
Art and culture University schools	1 239

Baccalaureat + 2 years training

60 different B.T.S (Professional Technician Certificates) lasting for 2 years and followed by a final examination, are offered to Provencal candidates in the following subjects<sup>10</sup> :

- Agriculture,
- Applied arts,
- Insurance, banking, real estate,
- Office automation, office work,
- Information, communication,
- Data processing,
- Accounting and Management,
- Health – Safety,
- Logistics and Transport,
- Trade and distribution,
- Health – Social,
- Tourism – Hotels,
- Automobile,
- Building – Public works,
- Materials,
- Chemistry – Physics – Bio-industries,
- Electronics – Electrical engineering,
- Mechanics and automation,
- Multipurpose industrial functions.

I.U.T.(Vocational higher education colleges) provide specialized training in the form of the following specialties during 2 years of higher studies after receiving the "Baccalauréat" <sup>11</sup> :

- Social careers,
- Logistics and transport management,
- Marketing techniques,
- Management of companies and administrations,
- Information and communication,
- Data processing,
- Administrative and commercial management,
- Health – Safety – Environment,
- Biological engineering,
- Communication services and networks,
- Electrical engineering and industrial data processing,
- Telecommunication and network engineering,
- Chemistry,
- Chemical engineering – Process engineering,
- Packing and packaging engineering,
- Mechanical and CIM engineering,
- Thermal and energy engineering,
- Physical measurements.

More than 25 different DUT (Diplômes Universitaires de Technologies - University Technical Diplomas) are offered in the Aix-Marseille Academy.

Preparatory class for the entrance examinations for the University Schools

Teaching at the main preparatory classes for the University Schools is given in our department as follows :

- Literary preparatory classes preparing for the entrance examinations for ENS (Ecole Normale Supérieure - University college that prepares students for senior positions in teaching and other professions), Ulm-Sèvres and the Lyon Literature and Human Sciences ENS at Paul Cézanne high school in Aix-en-Provence and Thiers high school in Marseilles,
- Saint-Cyr Literature preparatory class at the Military high school in Aix-en-Provence,
- Biology, chemistry-physics, earth sciences, national veterinary school preparatory classes at the Thiers high school in Marseilles,
- Maths, Physics, Engineering Sciences (MPSI) at Paul Cézanne high school and Military high school in Aix-en-Provence, Thiers high school and the Notre Dame de Sion high school in Marseilles,
- Physics, Chemistry and Engineering Sciences (PCSI) at Paul Cézanne high school, Vauvenargues high school, and the Military high school in Aix-en-Provence, Thiers high school in Marseilles, and Empéri high school in Salon-de-Provence,
- Physics, Technology, Engineering Sciences (PTSI) at Vauvenargues high school in Aix-en-Provence and Jean Perrin high school in Marseilles,
- Preparatory classes for entrance examinations to HEC (University Business school) at Cézanne high school in Aix-en-Provence, at the Saint Charles high school, Thiers high school and Jean Perrin high school in Marseilles,
- Technological and industrial sciences (TSI) preparatory classes for entrance examinations to the Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Arts et Métiers (Arts & Métiers University School and Cachan Ecole Supérieure (university school) at the Antonin Artaud general high school in Marseilles.

Higher Education schools

Euromed Marseilles Management school (Marseilles-Provence Chamber of Commerce and Industry) includes the following schools on Luminy campus :

- Euromed Marseilles Management School (ESC program) : Offers a Master of Science in Management (Bac + 5) in initial training and other programs leading to diplomas (inter and intra-company) in continuous training.
- The CeseMed (Centre d'Etudes Supérieures Européen du Management – European Higher Management Studies Center) : Trains executives and managers in international management in a 4- year program, including two years in other countries.
- The ISEFI (Institut Supérieur d'Etudes Financières et d'Ingénierie – Higher Financial and Engineering Studies Institute) : Trains high level specialists and experts in finance and banking and issues a diploma four years after the Baccalaureat, possibly with a fifth year of specialization to obtain a Master of Sciences in Finance.

The external CECE (External trade studies center) in Marseilles also offers a PhD program in international commerce.

Engineering schools

General training:

- The EGIM (Ecole Généraliste d'Ingénieurs de Marseille – Marseilles General Engineering School) was created through a merger between three Marseilles engineering schools (ENSPM<sup>12</sup>, ENSSPICAM<sup>13</sup> and ESM2<sup>14</sup>), and was officially inaugurated in October 2003, as a result of the combined efforts of the National Ministry of Education, Universities, the Ecole Centrales (university schools) Group, industries and local research laboratories, the city, the department and the region. This new university school was created as part of the reorganization of engineering schools. Human, technical and scientific resources for a fourth school the ESIM<sup>15</sup>, will very shortly be incorporated into the EGIM. The EGIM is assisted in its development by the Ecoles Centrales and its ambition is to become the Marseilles Ecole Centrale.

Armed Forces :

- Salon-de-Provence flying school : Trains engineers in three specialties, namely Air Mechanics Corps, Air Officers Corps and Air base officers Corps.

Chemistry – Biological :

- The Biotechnology ESIL (Ecole Supérieure d'Ingénieurs de Luminy – Luminy University School of Engineers in Marseilles) : Trains engineers in biological engineering and applied microbiology.

Physics – Energy :

- EPUM (Ecole Polytechnique Universitaire de Marseille – Marseilles University School specializing in Technology) : Trains engineers with diplomas in Energy Mechanics.

Mechanical industrial engineering :

- ENSAM (Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Arts et Métiers – Arts et Métiers National University School) in Aix-en-Provence : Trains generalist engineers.
- ESIL Materials (Ecole Supérieure d'Ingénieurs de Luminy - Luminy University School of Engineers in Marseilles) : Trains specialist engineers in surface treatment solutions and shaping of the most innovative materials.

Electronics and data processing:

- Provence Georges Charpak Microelectronics center in Gardanne : Trains engineers in micro-electronics.
- IAAI (Institut des Applications Avancées de l'Internet – Institute of Advanced Internet Applications) in Marseilles : Trains "Architects" of future Internet services.
- ESIL Biomedical (Ecole Supérieure d'Ingénieurs de Luminy in Marseilles) : Trains engineers in biomedical engineering.
- ESIL data processing (Ecole Supérieure d'Ingénieurs de Luminy in Marseilles) : Trains engineers in computer engineering.
- ISMEA (Institut Supérieur de Micro-électronique Appliquée – Higher Institute of Applied Microelectronics) in Marseilles : Trains engineers with a diploma issued by the French Electronics and Data Processing School.
- EPUM (Ecole Polytechnique Universitaire de Marseille – Marseilles Polytechnic School specializing in technology) : Trains engineers with degrees in micro-electronics and telecommunications.

The three universities

Aix-Marseille I – University of Provence :

- Teaching of literature and human sciences in Aix-en-Provence,
- Teaching of sciences on Marseilles (Saint-Charles, Saint-Jérôme, Château-Gombert and Luminy) and Aubagne sites.

Aix-Marseille II – University of the Méditerranée :

- Health, medicine, pharmacy, odontology in Marseilles, on the Timone and Nord hospital sites,
- Science in Marseilles, on the Luminy and Château-Gombert sites,
- Economic sciences in Aix-en-Provence and Marseilles,
- Sports in Marseilles, on the Luminy site,
- School of Journalism and Communication in Marseilles,
- IUT (University Institute of Technology) in Aix with a branch in Marseilles.

Aix-Marseille III – University of law, economy and sciences of Aix-Marseilles :

- Law in Aix-en-Provence, Marseilles and Arles,
- Economic sciences in Aix-en-Provence,
- Sciences in Marseilles on the Saint-Jérôme site with two branches in Aix-en-Provence and on the Arbois site,
- IUT in Marseilles with a branch in Salon-de-Provence,
- Business law Institute,
- Political Studies Institute,
- Penal Sciences and Criminology Institute,
- Regional Development Institute,
- Company Development Institute,
- Aix-Marseilles Higher National School of Process Synthesis and Chemical Engineering,
- Marseilles Higher National School of Physics.

Art schools

- Marseilles-Luminy School of Architecture,
- Arles National School of photography,
- Aix-en-Provence Higher School of Art,
- Arles Supinfocom (Multimedia school).

2.4 International education from nursery school to university

Several schools in the Bouches-du-Rhône department offer initiation courses in English (for small classes), European classes (courses provided in a foreign language) and international programs.

Nursery and primary school

- The EPIM (Ecole Privée Internationale de Marseille – Marseilles International Private School) : Secular private school with no contract with the State. The EPIM teaches children from 3 to 6 years old and offers bilingual French/English courses. This school leads to the Primary Years Program international Baccalaureat (recognized by UNESCO).

- The CIPEC (Centre International Privé pour l'Education & la Culture – Private International Center for Education and Culture) in Luynes : The CIPEC is located in the Aix countryside and is a private school offering international education from nursery school level to the end of the primary school (Grade 5). The basic concept of education at this school is based on French/English bilingualism. Non-English speaking foreign students can be taught in their maternal language (German, Spanish, Italian) starting from Grade 2, taught by native teachers from their country of origin.

- Saint-Etienne private school in Arles : Offers multilingual activities (Provencal, English, Spanish and Italian) starting from nursery school, and learning English starting from primary school (grade 1).
- The Chevreul Blancarde primary, secondary, and high school in Marseilles : Private school with a partnership contract with the State. Offers beginner's English starting from CM1 (Grade 4).

Higher education schools controlled by foreign countries

Several higher education establishments with ties to foreign countries offer education to foreign students who would like to continue some of their studies in France :

- California State University in Aix-en-Provence : Institute reserved for supervision of students from the universities of the State of California during their studies in Aix-en-Provence.
- E.P.S.S.A. (Ecole Populaire Supérieure Suédoise d'Aix –Aix Swedish Advanced Popular school) : Scandinavian Private school. This school offers courses in "French as a Foreign Language" to Scandinavian students. The teaching is based on oral and interactivity, the school motto being "Know how to speak".
- American University Institute in Aix-en-Provence : Reserved for American students who are doing a year of studies in France.
- American Center in Aix-en-Provence : The American Center is an organization created in 1984, and offers courses in "French as a Foreign language" and English courses as part of continuous professional training. Teachers also help to prepare students for the TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) and the TOEIC (Test of English for International Communication).
- I.S. (Institut Suédois – Swedish Institute) in Aix-en-Provence : International language school founded by an organization linked to the University of Stockholm, specialized in teaching French to foreigners.
- I.E.F.F.E. (Institut d'Etudes Françaises pour Etudiants Etrangers – Institute of French Studies for Foreign Students) in Aix-en-Provence : Teaching of the French language and literature, French, Provencal and European civilization for foreign students.

The CNOUS-CROUS (Centre National des Oeuvres Universitaires et Scolaires - Centre Régional des Œuvres Universitaires et Scolaires - National Center for University and Higher School subsidized accommodation – Regional Center for University and Higher School subsidized accommodation) is responsible for organizing accommodation and stays in France for foreign students who have received scholarships from the government, foreign governments or international organizations.

There are two CNOUS-CROUS branches in the Aix-Marseilles Academy, one in Aix-en-Provence and one in Marseilles, open to provide foreign students with any information they need about their studies in France.

(See pages 55 to 60 in our address book for the complete name, address and contact data for the schools and organizations mentioned above).

3.Transport in Provence

3.1

Transport infrastructures in Provence

Provence is ideally located at the heart of the Mediterranean Arc, and enjoys a genuine multimode transport system including :

- Facilities and services at the port of Marseilles-Fos, the largest French port on the Mediterranean, and the 4th largest port in Europe,
- A particularly dense and free-flowing motorway service, directly connected to the entire European motorway network,
- A high performance airport platform at Marseilles-Provence International Airport, the 4th busiest passenger airport in France,
- A river connection to European standards between the Gulf of Fos, the river port of Arles and as far as Châlon-sur-Saône.

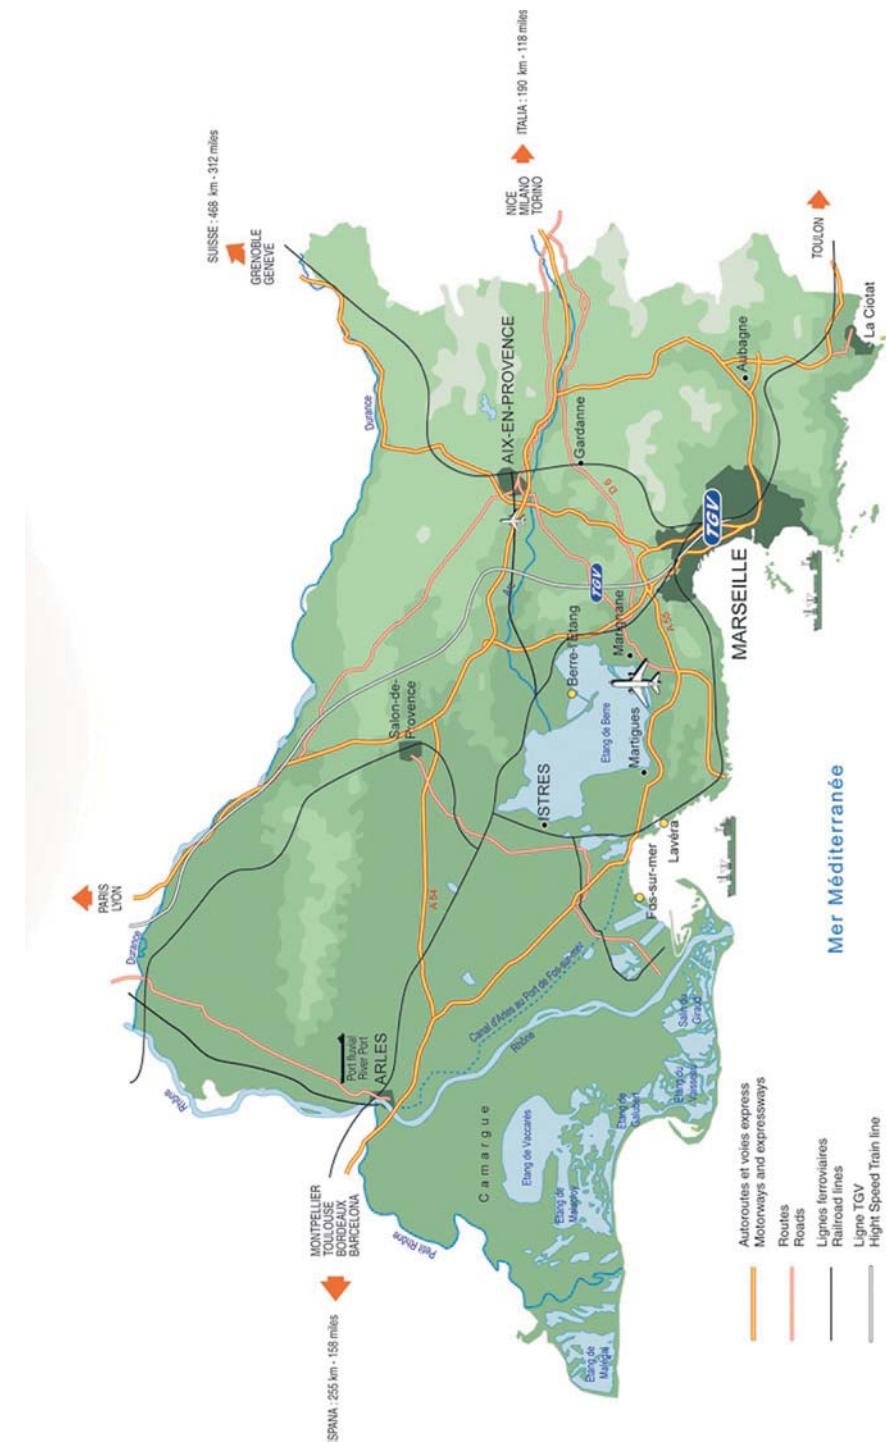

Managers and Executives can travel easily, particularly using :

- Marseilles-Provence Airport that offers daily air connections with the largest European capitals and a shuttle service to Paris (26 flights per day),
- the TGV, on the Mediterranean line that reaches Paris from Marseilles in 3 hours.

(See page 61 in our address book)

Transport infrastructures in the Bouches-du-Rhône

3.2

Public transport in Marseilles

Every day, the Marseilles bus, subway and tramway services carry more than 400 000 passengers. Due to a particularly dense public transport network, 95% of Marseilles inhabitants are less than 300 meters from a bus stop or a metro station.

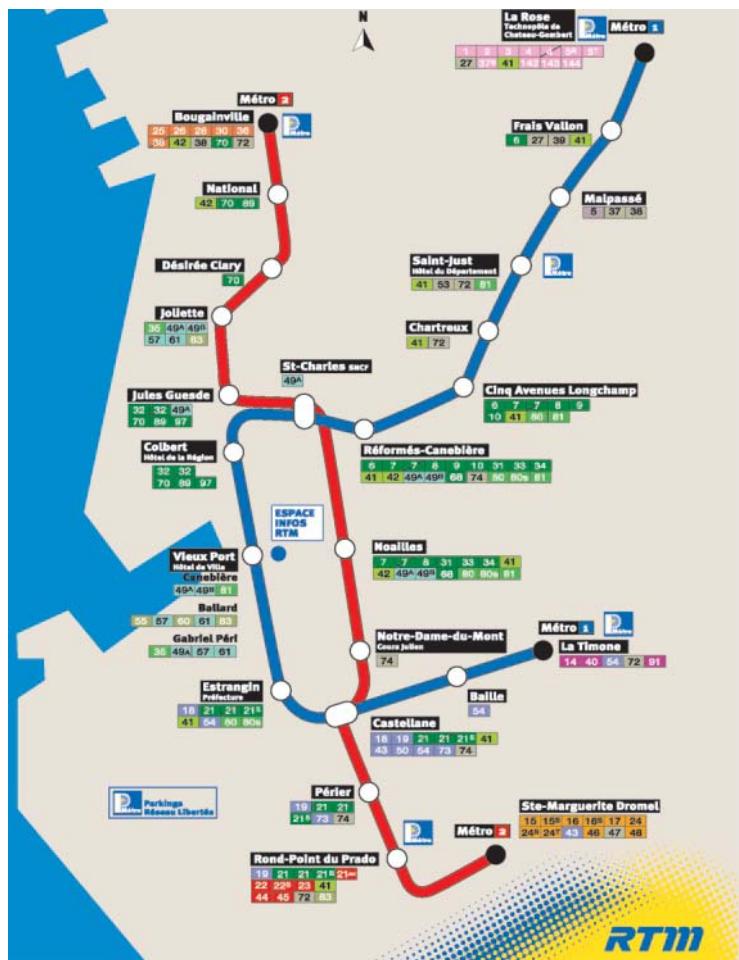

This density is illustrated by the presence of :

- 78 bus lines and 600 buses serving the 240 km<sup>2</sup> area within the city of Marseilles, and the 120 km<sup>2</sup> in the four surrounding communes - Allauch, Aubagne, Plan-de-Cuques and La Penne sur Huveaune. The entire network includes 1163 bus stops ;
- 19 km of lines and 24 stations for the subway and tramway.

The PDU (Plan de Déplacement Urbain - Urban Transport and Mobility Master Plan) plans to extend subway line 1 in 2006 from La Timone to La Fourragère, including the creation of a 500-place car park at La Fourragère. Three new tramway lines will also be brought into service during the same year.

Marseilles Bus and Subway network map

The subway is open from 5h00 to 21h00 and service frequencies are suitable for home-work travel. Thus, between 7h00 and 9h00 and between 17h00 and 19h00 there is :

- One train every 3 minutes (winter) or 5 minutes (summer) for line No. 1,
- One train every 4 minutes (winter) or 6 minutes (summer) for line No. 2.

The Marseilles subway is modern and has an innovative decoration in each of its stations, and it is safe and pleasant.

There is a single tariff for the entire network, regardless of the day, time or distance to be traveled. The same ticket can be used indifferently to travel by bus, subway or tramway and after a transfer.

Network maps, line timetables and information about subscriptions and tariffs in force are available to users at the RTM (Régie des Transports de Marseille – Marseilles Transport Authority) Info desk.

(See the complete name and address of the RTM on page 61 in our address book).

3.3

Public transport in Aix-en-Provence

The “Aix by bus” network serves the town center and the peripheral areas of Les Milles, Luynes, Puyricard and Le Tholonet. Buses run from 6h30 to 22h30 during the week. A reduced service is provided on Sunday.

In addition to the regular lines, the Town has set up dedicated school bus lines and a transport on request service.

The Aix-en-Provence public transport system carries 8 million passengers every year

Network maps and line timetables are available to users from the Office du Tourisme - Tourism Information center.

(See page 62 In our address book).

3.4

Inter-urban transports

► Inter-urban transports by coach : the Cartreize, Bus de la Marcouline and Bus de la Côte Bleue networks

The main communes in the department are connected to each other by the Cartreize departmental network that includes 100 coach lines. Several network lines continue outside the department to the large towns in the region (Avignon, Toulon, Digne, Gap, Nice, Nîmes...). They are integrated in an L.E.R. (Lignes Express Régionales – Regional Express Lines) regional network.

Two other new public transport networks, the Marcouline Buses and the Côte Bleue Buses, have been brought into service to serve communes in the Marseille Provence Métropole urban district.

(See page 62 in our address book).

► The PACA T.E.R. (Transport Express Régional - Regional Express Transport)

Most communes located on the railway lines are provided with a train service as part of the Regional Express Transport (T.E.R.) network.

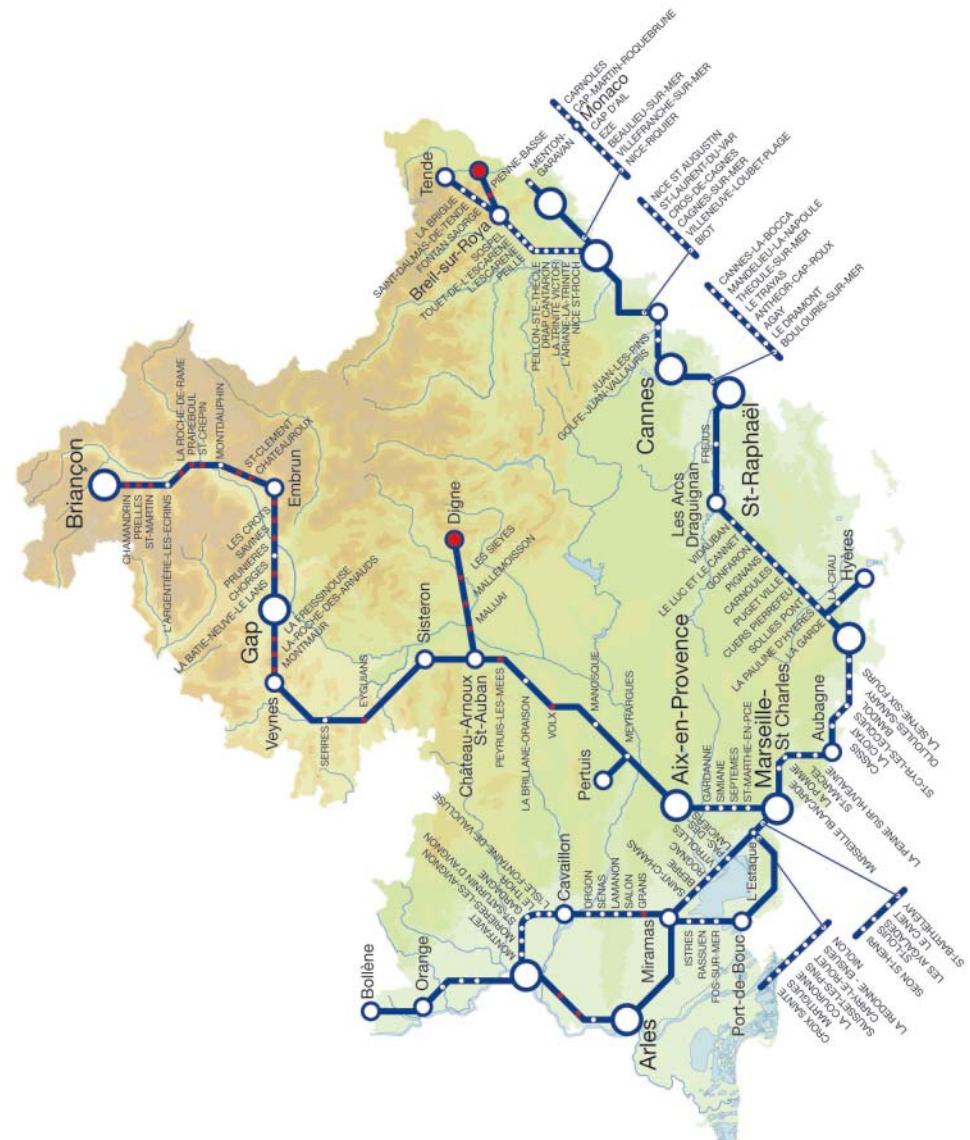

(See page 62 in our address book).

The T.E.R. network consists of 1000 km in the regional network in the six departments forming the PACA region, with 450 trains and 70 buses that run every day, more than 100 000 passengers per day, and 140 stops (one stop about every 7 kilometers).

Very busy lines such as Aix/Marseille or Miramas/Marseille carry 30 and 36 daily trains respectively. The SNCF offers a particularly attractive rate for employees and students.

Jobs in the Bouches-du-Rhône

This chapter is addressed particularly to families and expatriates (spouses) who are looking for a job.

The first step is to register as a job seeker with the Assedic (Association pour l'Emploi dans l'Industrie et le Commerce - Unemployment Benefits Office). The printed form to be filled in may be requested by telephone or by visiting the nearest Assedic agency.

(See page 63 in our address book).

After registering with the Assedic, the ANPE (Agence Nationale pour l'Emploi - Jobcenter) offers help to job seekers to guide them with their search.

(See page 63 to 64 in our address book).

► The ANPE :

- Defines a PAP (Personalized Assistance Project) with the applicant, for an efficient job search,
- Suggests job offers updated every day (to be viewed at the Jobcenter or through its Internet site),
- Provides personalized assistance and services (assistance in writing a CV, preparation of a hiring interview, etc.).

Other organizations can help job seekers in their efforts:

► The APEC (Association pour l'Emploi de Cadres - Agency providing information on recruitment and training opportunities for Executives)

- The APEC acts as a partner with companies for recruiting their executives and for assisting executives in the various steps in their career (first job, mobility, career development).
- The APEC also helps young university graduates to find their first jobs.
- The APEC has several branches – reception and information offices for executives – in the Bouches-du-Rhône department.

(See page 64 in our address book)

► PACA Mode d'Emploi

- PACA Mode d'Emploi (PACA for new comers) is a public structure with the purpose of offering companies working in the PACA region (or who would like to set up in this area) a complete and "tailor made" offer of services in terms of human resources.
- PACA Mode d'Emploi is a genuine interface between "job professionals" (AFPA<sup>16</sup>, ANPE, DDTEFP / DRTEFP, Territorial authorities, the European Union) and companies who are planning significant long term growth in their work force.

(See page 64 in our address book).

<sup>16</sup> AFPA (Association Nationale pour la Formation Professionnelle des Adultes - National Association for Professional Training of Adults)

Marseille Conseil

Marseilles Conseil is a human resources office specialized in assistance with mobility and works in partnership with Provence Promotion in setting up the "Home Sweet Home" operation, and has designed a program to help with the search for spouse jobs.

In particular, this program includes making a summary of skills and training seminars, and provides personalized assistance in looking for jobs.

(See page 64 in our address book).

4.2

Clubs, Associations and Professional groups

The Bouches-du-Rhône territory is particularly dynamic socio-economically and it groups many Clubs and Professional Associations in all activity sectors present in the department.

The ambition and guiding policy of all these groups is to introduce change, to enterprise, make progress, combat the negative image suffered by Marseilles and its region not so very long ago. Everyone is now convinced, the South has an enterprising spirit !

Food processing

- FRIAA (Fédération Régionale des Industries Agro-alimentaires – Regional Federation of Food Processing Industries) : The FRIAA federates all players in the food processing sector in the PACA region. It has many missions : the FRIAA offers a wide range of services in terms of technology transfer, assistance with getting organized on foreign markets, human resources and training courses. Moreover, the Organization & Promotion service organizes conferences and seminars, and participates in professional trade fairs or export missions relating to high growth geographic areas – all actions that tend to promote and improve the image of companies working in the sector.

Call centers

- Club des Managers de Centres Contacts (Contact Center Managers Club) : The Club des Managers de Centres Contacts is composed solely of executives managing customer contact centers. The aim of the Club is to encourage experience swapping, to provide up to date information about new technologies and to create new regional centers, and to promote the business through communication actions with education and public authorities. In order to successfully complete its mission, the Club organizes a dinner debate and a visit to one Center every quarter, and organizes meetings with other clubs in France.

Chemicals

- UIC Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur and Corsica (Union des Industries Chimiques Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur et Corse – Union of Chemical Industries in Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur and Corsica) : Chemical professionals belong to the UIC organization. Its primary mission is to identify common interests of companies working in the sector to help them with their development and to define joint actions. However, the role of the UIC professional group goes further than this, because it represents the industry with regional authorities and speaks on behalf of the chemical industry in the PACA region.

► Metallurgy

- UIMM Provence (Union des Industries et Métiers de la Métallurgie – Union of Metallurgy Industries and Trade) : The UIMM Provence is a community created by and for Metallurgy company managers. UIMM Provence is an innovation and skills center composed of professionals working in metallurgy, mechanics, electricity, electronics and microelectronics, and participates in the development of the regional industrial fabric and its ambition is to be a place of meetings, exchanges, information and action. Thus, UIMM Provence's legal and job-training services provide personal assistance to member companies at all stages of their development.

► Fashion & Textile

- Chambre Syndicale de l'Habillement (Clothing Union Committee) : This organization represents all sectors of Regional clothing and includes four sections, namely dress making, creators, commerce and industry. Its mission is to defend and represent the profession and to inform and advise its members. The Chambre Syndicale de l'Habillement also plays an important role in training in high schools and professional schools.

- Institut Mode Méditerranée (Mediterranean Fashion Institute) : The Institut Mode Méditerranée in the PACA region carries out several missions in parallel : it supports regional fashion creators, it organizes the sector economically, and it is responsible for a communication policy. Thus, the Institut Mode Méditerranée accompanies and advises young creators, provides assistance at trade fairs, acts as an economic observatory and publishes the Magazine de l'Espace Mode Méditerranée, a six-monthly magazine that presents professionals in the sector.

► Communication

- Cité de la Presse et de la Communication (Press and Communication City) : The Cité de la Presse et de la Communication is composed of five professional Associations, the Club de la Presse Marseille Provence, the Union des Photographes et Créateurs Méditerranée, the Club Provence Communication and since January 2004, the Union des Journalistes Sportifs de France. The aim of this group of almost 1000 professionals is to offer a shop window of know how in terms of information and communication, a place of meetings and animation and debates. One of the activities of the Cité de la Presse et de la Communication is to organize theme dinner debates, press conferences, photograph exhibitions.

- La Cité des Entrepreneurs d'Euroméditerranée (Euromediterranée Entrepreneurs City) : The Cité des Entrepreneurs d'Euroméditerranée is composed of the main company managers in the region working around the Euromediterranée project, which is a National Interest Operation. This Association now has more than 200 members, and its purpose is to enable company Managers to quickly integrate into the economic and cultural fabric of Marseilles and to contribute to the influence of Marseilles. Consequently the Cité des Entrepreneurs d'Euroméditerranée also proposes theme meetings, information breakfasts, company presentations and every year organizes the Euromed Fiesta that is attended by more than a thousand persons within the festive setting of the Dock des Suds (South Docks).

► Company creation

(See pages 65 to 67 in our address book for the full addresses of these groups).

4.3

Economic events

Many regional, national and international economic events are held in the Bouches-du-Rhône department every year.

The following is a selection of events that are held throughout the year :

- Salon Génération Entreprendre (Creation and Enterprise Fair - March) : This event provides an opportunity to meet people involved in company creation and takeovers and has a regional audience. It is held in Marseilles in the Parc Chanot.
- Salon Nautique Marseille-Métropole (Marseille Metropole Boat Show - March) : The Marseille-Métropole Boat Show has an international audience and it has chosen the attractive site of La Ciotat for its venue. This international event is a showroom for pleasure boat professionals, and is also an opportunity for festivities, meetings and entertainment for all public.
- Foire Internationale de Marseille (Marseille International Trade Fair - spring and autumn) : The Marseilles International Trade Fair is an inescapable meeting place lasting for more than 10 days, and is attended by 1300 exhibitors from 41 countries, and nearly 360 000 visitors. Craftsmen, institutions, and professionals from all activity sectors attend every year.
- Terroir 13 (June) : Terroir 13 is organized by the Bouches-du-Rhône General Council and is a "Giant Provencal market" visited by almost 50 000 visitors every year. Producers and breeders attend every year.
- Sunny Side of the Docs (June) : The Sunny Side of the Docs is an International Documentary Market, brings together nearly 230 Commissioning Editors and international buyers and more than 600 companies working in the sector, at the Palais du Pharo in Marseilles. This market is open to all professionals, large forums, debates and public shows are on the program every year during June.
- Top Transport (September) : Top Transport is a European business convention on transport and logistics that is held every year in the Palais du Pharo in Marseilles. The agenda for this convention includes pre-programmed and targeted meetings and conferences organized by experts on topical subjects.
- Provence Prestige (November) : Provence Prestige is organized by the Arles district CCI, and is the trade fair for the Art of Living in Provence. 150 exhibitors strictly selected according to the Charte Provence Prestige (Provence Prestige Charter) – a label distinguishing exceptional quality – welcomes 25 000 visitors during 5 days. The exhibition includes decoration, furniture, craftwork, pottery, and gastronomy.
- Créatreize (November) : The Créatreize Competition was created by the General Council 13 in 1992. The objective is to encourage innovation, jobs and the ability to export. All young companies creating jobs and activities in industry, production craftwork and finding jobs for the unemployed within the department are eligible. The jury is composed of professionals involved in the economy of the region, and awards prizes (thirteen) and financial assistance.
- Trophées de l'Emploi (Job Awards - November) : Job creation is in the news in Marseilles with the Trophées de l'Emploi awarded every year by a group of MSG (Masters in Management Sciences) students. 500 companies in the department enter for these trophies, from eight different activity sectors, 38 of these companies are selected, and 900 persons are invited. This event performs two purposes, firstly it rewards job creation, and secondly it provides an opportunity for students and professionals to meet.

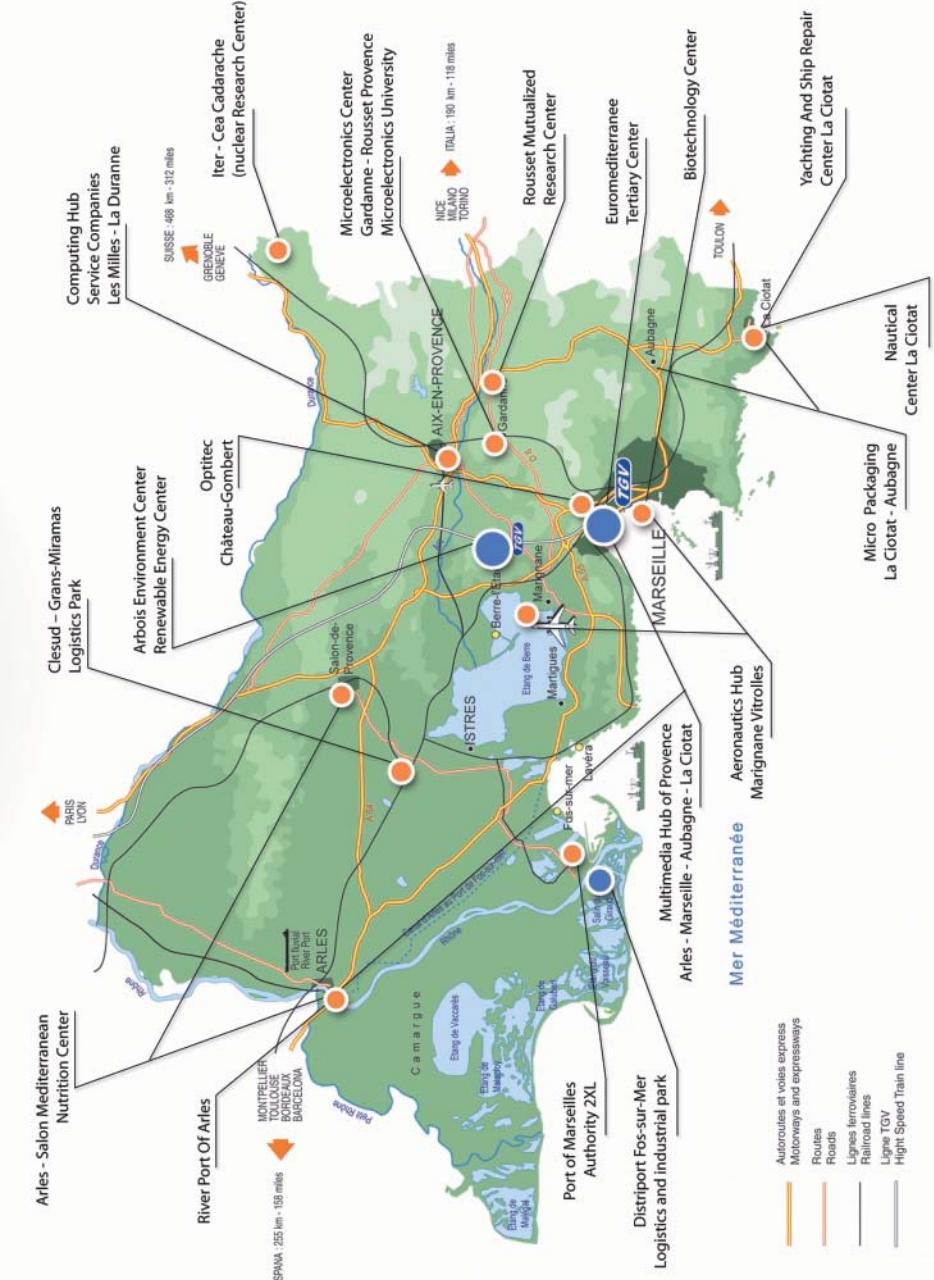

- Net'Expo (December) : Net'Expo is a professional trade fair with an international audience. It is the Mediterranean meeting place for Internet, data processing and telecoms, with nearly 5000 visitors and 100 exhibitors present every year.

There are many more confidential and enriching events apart from the prestigious dates mentioned above, such as "Meetings of the MDI (Maison du Développement Industriel – Industrial Development House), "Ateliers de Marseille Innovation" (Marseille Innovation Workshops), "Rendez-vous de l'International" (International Meetings) included in the Marseilles World Trade Center program every month, and also the "Echange & Diffusion des Savoirs" (Exchange and Dissemination of knowledge) conferences organized at the Department Town Hall.

(For further information about these events, see pages 68 in our address book).

Main industrial parks in the Bouches-du-Rhône

Every one knows that Marseilles comes to life and excels in Football. But does every one know that the City of Marseilles is host to the Beach Volleyball world series every year? Does every one know that Marseilles is the world capital of scuba diving? Is it known that the Calanques (unique in Europe) are a paradise for hikers and mountaineers?

Provence is a land of contrasts, and offers a wide range of leisure and sports activities from sailing to golf, including horse riding, deltaplane and many others.

There is an average of 2500 hours of sunshine every year, so that every one can perform his preferred activity, in any season. This is witnessed by many sports federations and leagues active in the department.

And since Provence is also a land of culture, it is not unusual to make a detour from a path and discover a landscape immortalized by Cézanne, Van-Gogh or Braque. The exceptional light has always inspired artists and it is not by chance that the Estaque (a popular district of Marseilles) is closely associated with three types of paintings : impressionism, fauvism and cubism.

If you have the soul of an artist, you will love to discover the places that inspired these artists. The Arles, Saint-Rémy, Aix-en-Provence and Marseilles Offices of Tourism offer discovery circuits on sites of the most famous paintings.

Persons who love reading will be delighted to visit the 94 libraries in the department, and the "Original Version" bookshops in Aix-en-Provence and Marseilles which offer books in German, English, Spanish, Italian, and so on, and if you would like to learn a little Provencal, in 2004 the town of Maillane will celebrate the poet Frédéric Mistral, the Nobel Price winner for Literature in 1904 and defender of the Provencal language and traditions. Other times, other places : the cipM (Centre International de Poésie de Marseille - Marseilles International Poetry Center) regularly offers contemporary poetry readings. And black novel lovers will delightfully plunge into the universe of Izzo, Carrese or Del Papas.

Provence, a land of festivals, is host to many events and music lovers and other amateurs of pictures, corridas and dancing will all find many interesting occupations.

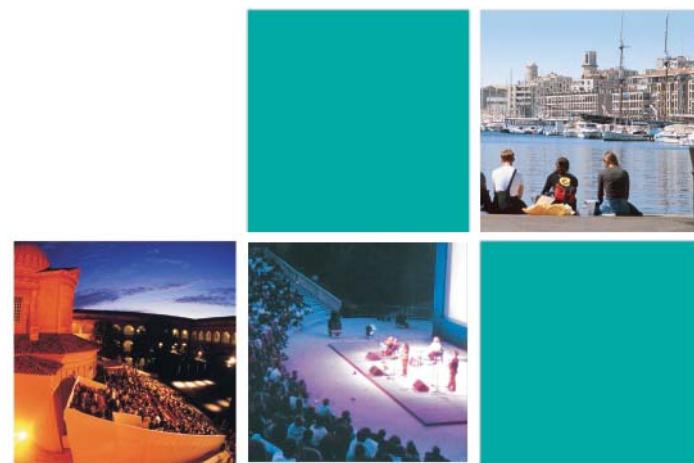

All styles cohabit in Provence, for example there is the Aix-en-Provence Festival of Lyric Art that attracts many famous artists every year, the Roque-d'Anthéron Piano Festival, the Arles Féria with its Spanish influence, Arles Photographic Festival, Dancing in Marseilles with the presence of the Marseilles National ballet and the now famous Fiesta des Suds.

The Fiesta des Suds was first created twelve years ago and reflects the style of the city of Marseilles -cosmopolitan, warm and exuberant. It provides an opportunity for all social classes to come together and dance to rhythms such as Salsa, Flamenco, Rock, Reggae... The Arte television station produced a documentary on this exceptional event in 2003, and several articles have been published in the national and international press. The Fiesta has earned its letters of nobility...

And if you prefer gastronomy to art or sports, you will also find your heart's delight in Provence. There are the traditional open air markets in every village throughout the year, plus a number of seasonal gourmet events. Carry-le-Rouet, Sausset-les-Pins and Port-de-Bouc organize "Oursinades" (Sea urchin feast) in the winter, Marseilles hosts the garlic market in early summer, and you can enjoy grilled sardines every evening at "Sardinades" (Sardine feast) in Martigues and Port-de-Bouc during the summer, Cassis has its wine festival in September and Mourèès has its green olives festival in September and the early oil festival in December. Everyone with a "sweet tooth" will enjoy a visit to the "Marché des 13 desserts de Noël" (13 Christmas desserts Market) held in Aix-en-Provence in early December.

The message is simple: there really are many sports and cultural events in Provence. Provence is a genuine cradle of civilization (this word should not be taken in vain) and it has the ability of mixing genre with talent and harmony. Passions can be declined in Provence, and it is possible to be bullfight fan, a music lover and supporter of the Olympique de Marseille all at the same time.

Schooling in Provence : from the day care center to university

2.1. From the day care center to high school

For information about methods of looking after children at pre-school age, please contact the infants service at the Town Hall near your home or refer to the Internet site of your Commune.

The French Government Internet gateway has drawn up a list of communes in the Bouches-du-Rhône that have an Internet site :
<http://lessites.service-public.fr>

A single number has been set up at 0821 07 99 13 that you should use if you would like information about child care services provided by the CAF (Caisse d'Allocation Familiales - Family Allowance Fund : 0.118€ per minute). This voice server is in operation 24h per day and 7 days per week. Nursery schools and primary schools are also controlled by Town Halls.

If you would like a list of secondary and high schools, please contact :

Rectorat de l'Académie d'Aix-Marseille
Place Lucien Paye
13621 Aix-en-Provence Cedex 1
Tél.: 04 42 91 70 00

Internet site : www.crt-paca.fr

These two organizations regularly publish brochures about sports and leisure that can be practiced in Provence, guest houses, hikes and walks, etc.

You can also refer to two urban guides :

www.cityvox.com will be helpful when choosing a restaurant, reserving places for a show on line, obtaining information about cinema sessions or just looking at the classified ads.

The Citadingue, a free guide to Aix-en-Provence, Marseilles and Cassis, suggests more than 550 addresses (leisure, shopping, sports, excursions, entertainment, restaurants, etc.). You can obtain this book from all Marseilles Town Halls, at the Marseilles and Aix Tourist Information Center, the underground, etc.
